

The Buller.

SECOND EDITION
BY TELEGRAPH

TELEGRAPHED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

NORTHERN NEWS.

RICHMOND, May 3.—Northern dates to the 1st have been received here.

A rebel force has appeared at Morgan's, Va near the Pennsylvania line, creating a general scare all along the border, from Harper's Ferry to Wheeling.

A rumor is current in Nashville that Breckinridge killed Bragg, on account of the latter ordering the execution of Kentucky soldiers.

Gen. Curtis telegraphs that the rebels were routed at Cape Girardeau on the 26th, and was pursued by McNeill and Van Dover.

The steamship Anglo Saxon which left Liverpool on the 66th, with three hundred and sixty passengers and eighty-four crew, was wrecked near Cape Race on the 27th in a dense fog, and only three persons escaped.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has been torn up twelve miles from Oakland, at which place the bridge is burned.

Wheeling papers of Thursday state that both Uniontown and Farmouth is in the possession of the rebels. The specie in the Wheeling banks has been sent to Pittsburgh.

Col. Eilot has destroyed every grist and saw mill and distillery along the Tennessee river; the towns of Hamburg and Eastport were also destroyed.

The Europa, bound from Liverpool on the 18th arrived at Halifax.

The London Times is very bitter on the letter of Minister Adams to Admiral DuPont in relation to exempting a certain ship for Mexico from England, conveying supplies and arms for the Mexicans.

The Daily News says there can be no doubt that irritation between England and the United States is gradually increasing.

Sir G. C. Lewis, the British Secretary of War, is dead.

LIVERPOOL, April 18.—The cotton market is buoyant; prices range from $4 to $10. Stocks 351,000 bales, including 47,000 American.

Gold in Baltimore on the 1st May, was quoted at $2.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, May 3.

The Yankee Cavalry which made the raid on the Central Railroad, proceeded to the Fredericksburg Railroad to day and tore up the track at Ashland; it was also reported that an ambulance train on its way to Richmond was captured by the Yankees.

No train has arrived from above to day.

No late accounts have been received of the operations in Spotsylvania. The latest reports indicate that the Yankee cavalry have crossed the Central Railroad in the vicinity of Hanover Court House, to the north of Ashland.

SECOND DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, May 3.

No train from above to day, and nothing definite yet received of to day's operations. From Spotsylvania we have further news, but the Secretary of War is too closely engaged, and no other authority is accessible at present to approve of the dispatch. We will try again to let you hear from us before the office closes.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

CHATTANOOGA, May 2.

A special dispatch to the Rebel dated Decatur, 2d inst., says:

Forrest is doing glorious work. He has been fighting since Thursday last. The fight is 30 miles from here.

Forrest has captured a large number of prisoners and has 1700 Yankees cut off in the mountains on the South. It is thought they have been captured.

Starnes' Rifles and Edmondston's regiments engaged the enemy and retook from him our cannon which had been captured.

The Yankees have evacuated Tuscumbe.

Our loss is 7 killed and 19 wounded.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, May 3.

Up to 15 minutes past 9 o'clock this morning no news had been received from Fredericksburg at the War Department.

FROM JACKSON, MISS.

JACKSON, May 2.

Dispatches recived from Woodsville state that the enemy is advancing on that point from above and below and that the citizens are hastily organizing and will make the best defense possible.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

CHATTANOOGA, May 1.

All is quiet in front. The enemy is within his entrenchments at Stone river.

A special dispatch to the Rebel, dated Huntsville, May 1, says:—"Forrest repulsed the enemy yesterday and inflicted upon him considerable loss, near Danville, 15 miles from Decatur, and is still pursuing the enemy."

Our loss is reported to be about 30.

Our pickets are now beyond Courtland.

CONGRESSIONAL.

RICHMOND, May 2.

Congress has adjourned, sine die, last night, after passing the bill relative to Congressional Railroads.

All bills, the most of which have heretofore been referred by the House, have been approved, and signed by the President, except the one relative to the bill and the act for the subscription of Maryland, which were not signed.

Nothing definite has been done in the Frederick.

The bill.

FROM THE LITTLE ROCK.

A BILL.

THE LITTLE ROCK SEVERAL MILES.

THE ENEMY SUFFERED SERIOUS LOSS.

CONFEDERATE LOSS ABOUT 100.

RICHMOND, May 2.
5 o'clock, P. M.

Letters from Hamilton's Crossings, just received, state that a battle occurred yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of Chancellorsville, between brigades of General Lee's army and the advance columns of the Yankees, resulting in the driving of the enemy back several miles with serious losses.

The Confederate loss is estimated at about one hundred.

Nothing definite as regards to-day operations has been received.

All accounts from above are of a cheering character as to the spirit of our army and the position of our main forces.

FROM THE WEST.

A BATTLE AT GRAND GULF.

ENEMY DRIVEN FROM THE FIELD.

HEAVY LOSS ON BOTH SIDES.

JACKSON, May 1.

The enemy advanced and fighting began at Grand Gulf this morning at 1 o'clock and the fight continued until 4 o'clock, when the enemy were repulsed.

The battle was renewed at 8 o'clock, when the enemy took Wade's Virginia battery, which was retaken this evening and the enemy driven one mile from the battle-field.

Firing has ceased.

The loss is heavy on both sides.

Gen. Bowers' horse was struck four times during a charge upon the enemy.

FROM ALEXANDRIA, LA.

NATCHZ, May 1.

A gentleman who left Alexandria on Wednesday morning, brings intelligence that Banks is not now nor has he been near 50 miles of Alexandria.

He also reports that Gen. Moulin, with 1500 cavalry, gained the enemy's rear and captured and destroyed 175 wagons belonging to the enemy's ordnance trains.

FROM TULAHOMA.

TULAHOMA, May 1.

Gen. Forrest met the enemy near Millin, yesterday, and repulsed him in a hand to hand fight.

The enemy is in full retreat and Forrest is pursuing him.

All is now quiet in front.

FROM VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, May 2.

About 1,000 Yankees entered Louis Court House at 3 o'clock this morning and have since that time tore up the Central Rail Road for a distance of four miles in this direction.

The trains are all safe; also the army stores; the latter having been removed some days since.

The raid will prove fruitless to the enemy except so far as the injury to the track, which will be repaired in a short time.

Success in Northwestern Virginia

Repulse of the Enemy at Beverly

Capture of Supplies, &c.

By way of Staunton we get some good news from Northwestern Virginia. Good news from the Yankees to the front that he is now ready to fill every order for making Steam Engines, Cotton and Tobacco Presses, and every description of Machinery. All kinds of Casting Iron, Brass and other Metals made at about 1000 lbs per hour. Particular notice to be given to the making and repairing of Threading Machines, Horse Powers, Cotton Gins, Mill Works and Agricultural Works of all kinds. Blacksmithing, Job, Wagon Works and Horse-Shoeing done with dispatch. Our Works are now in full gear, though at the Foundry or Works in each size up to 500 ft. All kinds of Wood Turning done.

MORE NEW GOODS.

50 dozen Linen Cambic HANKERS.

CHIEFS just received and for sale at KAHNWEILER & BRO.

Feb 27, 1863—tf

SMOKERS ATTENTION.

PIPES, a variety of Styles, (Cheap)

At KAHNWEILER & BRO.

March 28 '63—tf

MORE GENTLEMEN.

Just received a lot of Paris made fine soft HATS at KAHNWEILER & BRO.

December 11, 1862—tf

KHNWEILER & BRO.

WANTED.

3 or 3000 lbs. good soft SOAP, for which the cash will be paid, either in Cash or on the Delivery of the Goods.

T. R. TATE.

HEADQUARTERS N. W. VA. BRIGADE,

Two Miles North of Beverly,

April 24, 1863.

I attacked the enemy in a strong position on the heights in the rear of Beverly to-day, and defeated and drove him from the town after a stubborn resistance of 3 hours—pursued him till dark on the Philippi road—renewed the pursuit in the morning.

He burned a considerable part of the town and burned his stores, which were

CHARLOTTE.

OF DAY, MAY 4, 1863.

[86 PER ANNUM]

AUCTION SALES.

Good Charge of the Cotton, Linen, Wool, Flax, and

Silk, and other fabrics, and

also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

Also a quantity of

Hemp, Flax, and other

fabrics.

